Phoenix Area Guide

An Unparalleled Destination

Things are different in the desert. The sky is bigger. The stars are brighter. The sunsets stop you in your tracks. It's a feeling that can't be conjured, landscaped or kindled with twinkling bulbs. America's fifth-largest city still has real cowboys and rugged mountains and the kind of cactus most people see only in cartoons, but also offers sophisticated urban capes, southwest culture, and lots of adventure. Phoenix's history is a testament to the spirit of Puebloans, ranchers, miners and visionaries. It's a place that inspires, revitalizes and reignites your sense of wonder.

Meet Cohera

We are a creative agency reimagining how the world's best companies connect.

Why the name Cohera?

Pronounced co-HERE-uh

Our name tells our story. Derived from "coherence", it speaks to the idea of coming together—CSI DMC and 360DG joining forces, bringing people together with our events, connecting all the pieces together to put amazing experience together for our clients.

Our Leadership

Trevor Hanks
CEO

Trevor grew up in the DMC world, helping run programs before most kids finished middle school. In 1996 he took the lead at TMM and helped guide it into what turned into 360 Destination Group. As CEO of Cohera, he brings hustle, vision, and humor to everything he does. Outside of work, he's surfing, adventuring with his five daughters, or debating the correct way to make an old-fashioned.

Shelly Archer
President

Shelly has covered more of the globe than most travel guides. She began her hospitality career on a five-star cruise line, circling the world before the age of 30. With over three decades in incentive planning, events, and destination management, she now leads one of the top DMCs. At Cohera, she blends global perspective and local know-how to create experiences full of discovery, no passport required.

Hope Valentine
President

Hope has been shaping destination experiences since long before the word experiential became trendy. A UCF alum, she has spent more than twenty years producing memorable events for major brands while leading teams through growth and change with calm and strategy. Now, as President, she champions big ideas, collaborative leadership, and partnerships that feel like true teamwork.

Yep, we're basically everywhere

And it looks like we do everything too
